It was hot. But most ate. It was bright. But not all have been as bright as it was. It was a shimmer of visions (for the new year maybe) and a summer of color, visions of color. Colors that were passionate, exciting, and free. But they haven't disappeared — they're just beginning to do their job. The colors will take us through a year — never letting us down. They will provide for us a personality — they'll give us visions, and each one will be different for each other. Visions of past, present, and future.

Black portrays dominance; the boldness and strength of a team; while white calms the nerves and brings on the innocence. Splashes of black will provide visions of school — Howe School — to every student who leaves it. It'll bring back the "get-togethers" after all of the victorious games.

Colors have a way of melting into your system. Your favorite makes a statement about you. Black is sophistication; a bit mysterious. Red is daring and — outgoing!! Yellow is impulsive and innovative, wise and calm. White is innocent and pure. Blue is hardworking — accomplished. Green is socialable, on-the-go. The colors make you see . . . They provide backbone, and give you confidence.

Everyone starts a new year wondering what it will be like. Some create visions of the year, make resolutions to change something, or some try to make it the best year ever. Some can vision three months from now, some don't think past second period, but our visions of school will end with a Splash of Color.

"Educating The Hope Of Tomorrow"

To the Students of Howe Schools:

It is an honor for me to greet you from the pages of your book of memories for 1987-88.

As you look through this book in the years ahead, you will recall some of the most exciting times of your life.

It is my hope and prayer that the things you have experienced and learned will have strengthened you; and will have prepared you well for the opportunities of life.

I extend my sincere best wishes and my hope for your continued success in all you do.

Sincerely,

Pete Simmons, Superintendent
Howe Independent School District

The Bulldog pride begins early in youth and grows. During basketball season many different shades of color; talents, come together and make one team to represent their school and pride . . . Bulldog pride.

The Eighth grade teams of 1987-88 year played extremely well. The hard work and determination were the factors of the successful year.

The final score for the girls was ten wins and one loss to Tom Bean. The boys score was eleven wins and two losses to Pottsboro and Tom Bean.

The coaching also played a big role in the success because this is the time the players learn and begin their paths to many more successes in the years to come.

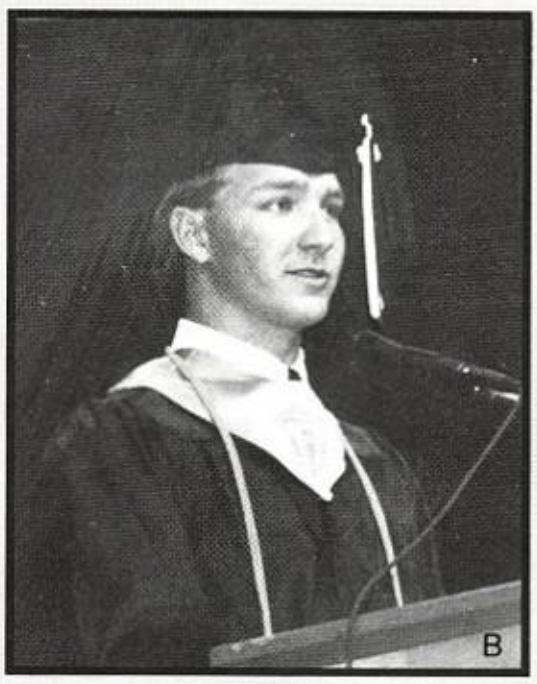
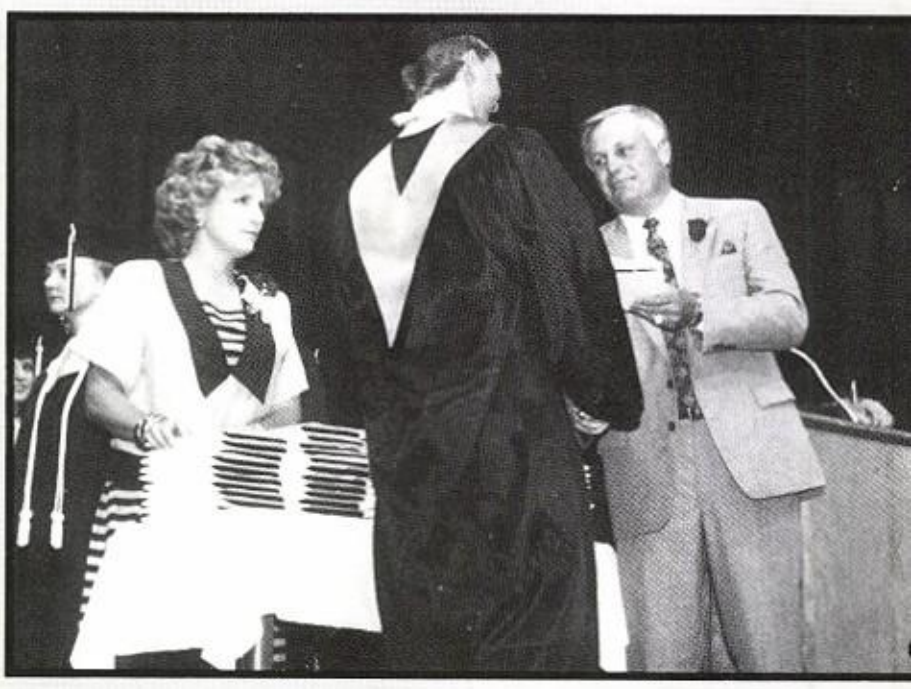
Finishing Touch . . .
Seniors Take Their Final Bow

Some people just never know how to say goodbye. Some people just never know when to leave. Then again, graduation always has a way of saying "farewell" — and "hello."

Granted saying goodbye is never an easy task, but it comes with the package of lif Some farewells were said with a sigh of relief while others were said with tears and sadness.

Yet after the "Pomp and Circumstance" had been performed and the seniors were their position, another goodbye was said.





A — Ribbon cutting — the first sign of becoming independent

B — Grant Sutton talks about the small town good of being able to participate in a lot of different activities while getting a good education.

C — School Board representatives award diplomas.

D — Miss Jarma leads the Seniors in their class song — "Friends."

A very exciting part of high school years is the athletic events that we both watch and are involved in. A game winning 3 point shot in basketball or a field goal attempt with no time on the clock will be topics of conversations well into your adulthood. But the friendships made while you make the efforts and sacrifices necessary for the kind of athletic teams that are expected at Howe will last a lifetime. That's what makes being a part of athletics so very special. That's what makes Howe High a special place.

1988 LADY BULLDOGS NEVER LOSE TEAM SPIRIT!

To the 1987-88 Lady Bulldogs

I would like to congratulate this team for their work habits and dedication. You always worked hard to accomplish your goals. This team realized from the beginning the effort it would take to win and be competitive.

The next challemge was to dedicate yourself to your task. This you did. Your loyality to this program and to your teammates was unchallenged.

I thank you for your time, dedication, and loyality. I am very proud of each and every one of you. Coach Rich

Homecoming was a wonderful, fun-filled week. The Student Council planned several activities, including a dance, and H.H.S. elected a Homecoming Queen. The whole school showed spirit and support by dressing up as beach bums Tuesday, Beach Day. That night was the Extravaganza and Dance. Nominees for Homecoming Queen were narrowed down from eight to five. Wednesday was Tie 'em up and Sock it to 'em day, as everyone wore Ties and Socks. Thursday, being picture day, was also Dress Up day. H.H.S. looked quite classy that day! Friday was the finale. Everyone dressed in Black and White. Before the victorious game against Whitewright, Vicki Boles was crowned Howe High School's Homecoming Queen.

All of the events make Homecoming one of the most colorful, enjoyable weeks of the year.

Highlighters

The Highlighters — a colorful group of lovely young ladies with bright shiny faces and a beautiful rainbow of other qualities. Their smiles are red and their cheeks pink. Their colors are black and white with a touch of red and silver. These are the obvious outside colors, but what about the inside? These girls have spirit, energy, joy, laughter and love to share with all they meet. The attributes they show cannot be seen as colors, but when they perform out on the football field or on a basketball court we can see the rainbow these girls unveil. Their spirit and energy are seen with every step and the routine or props only help to add to the beauty. The Highlighters are one big array of colors shining forth for all to see.

The National Honor Society is an organization of the academic achievers in the Junior and Senior classes. A student must uphold an B average and meet faculty requirements to be considered for membership. Participating in the Charles R. Thompson Chapter is a great honor that all students should strive to attain: joining other leaders, athletes and students, that have held that responsibility and prestige before them.

The many colors of the school that have become a part of us teachers, classes, sports, and the students themselves do not just stop at the school doors. The following pages are a different color. The support and concern of these companies as well as the others have made our book possible. The Yearbook staff of 1988 would like to thank all of the people who have supported us by buying ads and sponsoring pages in our book. We hope our hard work will make them, as well as the student body and parents, proud to be a part of our book.

The following pages also help us visualize and remember a big part of our color that will be leaving Howe Schools and going out into the world and spreading their color with others. We wish the Senior class of 1988 luck, and hope they catch all of their dreams.

Besides pictures of the Seniors in the their "prime youth;" we also have other illustrations within this section of other people, organizations, and groups that have put the right touches in our lives with their own unique Splash of Color.
